Anatomy of a Federal Regulation

Find regulations in the FEDERAL REGISTER at Regulations.gov, FDSys, Westlaw or Lexis.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
28 CFR Part 36
(80 FR 64566, Oct 9, 2015; 82 FR 27977, June 14, 2017)

PART 36—NONDISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY BY PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS AND IN COMMERCIAL FACILITIES

Section 36.303 Accessibility and service.

(g) Movie Captions and Audio Descriptions.
(1) Definitions. For the purposes of this paragraph—
(A) Audio description means provision of a spoken narrative of key visual elements of a visually delivered performance, including, but not limited to, actions, settings, facial expressions, emotions, and scene changes.

Is it a PROPOSED RULE (requesting comment), a FINAL RULE (legally binding), or some other notice?

1. Developed by agency.
2. Published in Federal Register and Regulations.gov (NOTICE).
3. Public COMMENTS received.
4. Agency considers comments and makes changes to rule.

Final rules published after appropriate Notice & Comment are legally binding.

The SUMMARY section provides helpful background information: reasons for the new rule, relevant statutes or cases, and responses to public comments.

Read it carefully.

PART 36—NONDISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY BY PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS AND IN COMMERCIAL FACILITIES

Section 36.303 Accessibility and service.

(g) Movie Captions and Audio Descriptions.
(1) Definitions. For the purposes of this paragraph—
(A) Audio description means provision of a spoken narrative of key visual elements of a visually delivered performance, including, but not limited to, actions, settings, facial expressions, emotions, and scene changes.